

Instructions for authors

Studia Philologia publishes original and innovative research in philology that has not been previously published elsewhere, either partially or in full, in the original language or in translation. Additionally, the manuscripts should not be or have been submitted for consideration to any other journal.

Articles based on research presented at conferences, or any revised versions thereof, may be sent to our journal only if they have not been submitted for publication in conference proceedings.

The articles published in Studia Philologia may be published afterwards in any other journals and may be included in subsequent books written by the author, in the original language or in translation, on condition that Studia Philologia is cited as the original publisher.

Articles should be sent to the journal by the authors themselves. By submitting a manuscript to Studia Philologia, the authors acknowledge that it represents the final draft and consent to have it reviewed for publication. The authors shall bear sole responsibility for the content of their articles throughout the reviewing process.

Studia Philologia will not accept multiple submissions by the same author for the same issue.

The journal has a double-blind peer review policy. The articles that pass the initial editorial screening and selection enter the double-blind peer review process pursuant to which the authors will receive two evaluation reports for the submitted material. Based on the recommendations of the reviewers, the editors make an informed decision on whether to accept or reject the article. In the case of multiple authors, only the corresponding author will receive these reports. Authors are advised to include their identification data when submitting a manuscript; it is the duty of the editor and/or the editor of a special-themed issue to anonymize the materials while handling the logistics of the peer-review process.

Submissions that include slanderous, discriminatory or illegal material will not be accepted.

In addition to research studies, Studia Philologia publishes book reviews and interviews with personalities in the field of philology. The above terms apply to these materials as well. Book reviews should be around 1000-1500 words and consider solely relevant works published in the previous 3 years. The size and structure of the interviews will be discussed with the editor.

Copyright

By submitting an article for publication, the authors guarantee the originality of the material and ensure that it does not infringe on the copyright or licence rights of a third party.

It is the authors' responsibility to ensure they obtain permission to reproduce any materials subject to copyright.

Timeline

The journal is published on a quarterly basis; the submission deadlines for authors and editors are:

- 1 November for Issue 1,
- 1 February for Issue 2,
- 1 May for Issue 3,
- 1 August for Issue 4.

The executive editor receives papers for publication and proposals for the editing of special-themed issues. Authors should submit articles in two formats: Word 97-2003 (minimum) and pdf. The editor of a special-themed issue will likewise send the selected articles to the journal in the same formats (Word and pdf). Articles should be submitted electronically, using the email address of the journal: studia.philologia@lett.ubbcluj.ro.

Drafting guide

Articles should be written in one of the following languages: English, French, German, Spanish, Italian, Portuguese, or Norwegian.

The title should be informative and no longer than 15 words. A maximum length of 70 letters is recommended.

Author(s) names. The author(s)' full name should be followed by a footnote containing a bio-note of maximum 150 words that shows their position and institutional affiliation, their most important academic accomplishments and/or fields of interest, and their email address.

Abstract and keywords. The abstract (no longer than 250 words) should be written in both English and Romanian, regardless of the language in which the article is submitted, and clearly state the thesis and main conclusions of the article. In the abstract, the author should first mention the title in English and Romanian, separating it from the body of the abstract with a period. Citations may not be included in the abstract. Below the abstract, the author should include a minimum of five keywords to be used for indexing in international databases. Keywords should be written in both English and Romanian and listed below their respective abstract. Foreign authors may request the journal editors' assistance in translating the title, abstract and keywords into Romanian.

Text.

The text of the article should be between 5,000 and 7,000 words (including footnotes).

Formatting.

References.

Studia Philologia prefers the in-text citation form recommended by the Chicago Manual of Style 17th Edition, the AD format. Thus, references for quotations, paraphrases and short summaries will be marked, as follows:

(Smith 2016, 315–16)

(Grazer and Fishman 2015, 12)

(Keng, Lin, and Orazem 2017, 9–10)

The bibliography should be listed at the end of the article and should contain an alphabetical and chronological list of all works cited, as follows:

- Smith, Zadie. 2016. Swing Time. New York: Penguin Press. \(Book\)
- Grazer, Brian, and Charles Fishman. 2015. A Curious Mind: The Secret to a Bigger Life. New York: Simon & Schuster. \(Book\)

Bibliographical entries must correspond exactly with the quotations, paraphrases, and summaries in the text. The bibliography should not contain references that do not appear in the article.

Italics should be used for emphasis, keywords in a language other than that of the article, and titles of books, movies etc. Bold letters should be used for headings and subheadings.

Further information on how to create citations and compile bibliographies may be found here:

https://owl.purdue.edu/owl/research_and_citation/chicago_manual_17th_edition/cmos_formatting_and_style_guide/general_format.html

A prose quotation of five or more lines, or more than 100 words, should be blocked.

Footnotes should be used for elucidation and may not contain bibliographical references to the corresponding quotations used in the article. Notes can include bibliographical references if they are ancillary to the article's thesis, such as "for further reading see...".

Illustrations.

Authors who do not use Word software should submit their files in a different format (.pdf, .idd, .rtf, .txt, etc.); illustrations should preferably be inserted in the text of the article but they can also be submitted separately with .bmp, .tif, .jpg extensions and 150-300 dpi resolution.

Itemizing images (for example, Figure 3) must be chronological and correspond to the order of their appearance in the text. In addition to the Word file, a .pdf version should be submitted to aid viewing and formatting.
